

Amending Title 9, Chapter 173 of the Minneapolis Code of Ordinances relating to Fire and Police Protection: Fire, by adding subdivision 173.20(c) designating the Chief of the Fire Department as the person in the City responsible for emergency preparedness and management, pursuant to Chapter 128 of the Minneapolis Code of Ordinances.

CHAPTER 173. FIRE*

173.20. Powers and duties of chief generally. (a) The chief shall have full control over all apparatus, equipment and supplies and full control and command over all persons in the employ of the fire department, and shall possess full power and authority over its organization, government and discipline, and to that end shall, from time to time, prescribe and enforce such rules and issue such orders as the chief may deem advisable.

- (b) The chief shall at all times supervise and keep in repair and ready for instant use all apparatus, equipment and supplies used for fire prevention, fire protection and fire fighting. The chief shall keep a record of all fires and causes for and losses incurred in such fires as accurately as such causes and losses can be ascertained. The chief shall submit a report of the condition and activities of the fire department to the city council at the close of each fiscal year or as soon thereafter as is practicable. (Code 1960, As Amend., § 640.020; 90-Or-164, § 2, 6-15-90)
- (c) The chief shall be responsible for managing the office of emergency preparedness and management, set forth in M.C.O. Ch.128, including all of the obligations and tasks set forth in M.C.O. Ch.128 and the development and implementation of the city's emergency management plan.
